October Concepts and Activities

October—Fall is in the air, the sky is a brilliant blue; leaves are a riot of color and crispy underfoot. Harvest products fill the market with golden hues. Autumn is a good time to talk about the change of seasons and how plants, animals and people are affected. October is National Fire Prevention Month and offers the opportunity for exciting activity with noisy fire trucks and brave firefighters. Halloween with its masks and spooky costumes brings October to a dramatic and fun close. Since Halloween can be a very scary time for young children, we will try to talk about many of the “spooky” things they will encounter during the holiday and carnival.

The shape and colors for October: triangle, orange, and black

NURSERY

Nursery will explore sensory activities. Some concepts learned during sensory activities will be using my hands and feet to explore objects. We'll be moving to music, and exploring by touching objects with different textures. We'll try new foods and explore how new textures feel in our mouths, we'll be looking at our reflection in a mirror, observing objects with different shapes, listening to music, and experience the sounds of speech in song and when being read to. We will paint on real pumpkins, paper pumpkin shapes, touch pumpkin filling, make Halloween footprints, play with mini-pumpkins, and explore outdoors during our buggy rides. Please check your child's stash of extra clothing for needed changes during our day, and please remember all formula, food, and water must be factory sealed when you bring it to school.

INFANTS

Infants continue to explore their world through sensory activities and group play. We will explore the traditional sights and sounds of Autumn. The Infants will paint at the window with orange and black paints, they will use different techniques to paint using twigs or branches, fingers, rollers, sponges, etc. The infants will decorate spiders, pumpkins, witches, leaves, and scarecrow shapes. They will gather leaves and explore our water table. We'll explore pumpkins by carving and removing seeds, and use the seeds and other types of leaves for an art activity. We will explore textures with cotton balls and sensory discovery by tasting candy corn and marsh-mallow. We will continue to offer the children a variety of books and finger play activities to help develop language and literacy interest like “Five Little Pumpkins,” and we look forward to tasting pumpkin and cool whip!
